DESCRIPTION

The property comprises industrial premises formed of steel portal frame with brick/blockwork elevations beneath an insulated composite panel roof.

Originally constructed as three individual units, the space offers flexibility to be returned to the original design with each unit benefiting from its own independent supplies.

The property benefits from first-floor offices and high-quality mezzanine storage throughout. Mezzanines are a landlord's fitting and subject to negotiation; they can be removed if there is a requirement for full-height production/storage space.

Further details are available, but energy-efficient measures have been installed, including PV panels on the roof and air-source heat pump.

All main services are provided to the property, including gas and three-phase electricity.

The outgoing tenant will be undertaking refurbishment works to include redecoration throughout.
